

OUM & Co. LLP Welcomes Tamara Litrich as OUM's New Recruiting Manager

San Francisco, CA, December 10, 2018 – OUM & Co. LLP, a top-leading and customer dedicated CPA and Business Advisory firm, announced today a new member of the OUM family, Tamara Litrich as Recruiting Manager.

“We are incredibly excited to welcome Tamara to the OUM team!” said Annette Franklin, HR Manager of OUM & Co. LLP. “Her deep recruitment experience across a variety of industries positions us to appeal to a broader talent pool and will strengthen our digital presence in the national talent market as we continue to expand our business reach”

Tamara is a senior recruiter experienced in a variety of industries where she has recruited for numerous positions ranging from junior to executive levels. After earning her BS in Merchandising Management with a minor in Human Resources from Madonna University, she started her career as an agency recruiter in the San Diego area recruiting for several companies which included Accounting and Financial Services positions.

Most recently, Tamara was a contract recruiter for various non-profits where she successfully managed a high volume pipeline, significantly reduced outside agency fees, and created a results driven recruitment process. Tamara's experience coupled with her engaging demeanor and robust knowledge of the talent market aligns her well with OUM's Talent Acquisition goals.
